

BANK BOOSTS PIG CLUBS

Boys to Show Porkers at the County Fair

Columbia county pig club members will be out in force at the county fair next week, and a lot of lively competition is expected. Uncle Sam issued a call last spring for an increase of three million more hogs to help fill to the top the nation pork barrel. The boys and girls of the county responded by the thousands, each promising to raise a pig to help grease the road to Potsdam.

The Columbia County Bank has been active in fostering this work. A score or more boys and girls were loaned the money with which to buy a pig. As a result just that many boys and girls are some thirty or forty dollars richer and Uncle Sam's "doughboys" in France can have just that much more bacon.

Mr. Miles, president of the bank, is anxious to see each of these pigs and the boy or girl that raised him, so he is inviting them both to come to the county fair. The club members are to have a judging contest by which they will show their knowledge of the good and bad points of the fine pigs on display. In other words, they are going to show "dad" that they know the difference between good profitable pigs and an undesirable profiteer.

Then the pig club members are to write a story of not more than 400 words, about, "How I Raised My Pig." This is to be a true story of the boy's own experience and will be judged on the basis of how it is written and how the pig was raised.

Here are the prizes as they are to be offered:

MONEY RAISED FOR SALVATION ARMY

The drive to obtain the quota asked of St. Helens by the Salvation Army campaign committee, was started in St. Helens Wednesday night and concluded yesterday.

The amount asked of the county was a little more than $700 and of this amount St. Helens was to raise $200.

This amount and a little more, was easily obtained. Dr. Flynn, H. S. Mason, Sherman Miles and H. F. McCormick were the soliciting committee and they report that very few people turned a deaf ear to the appeals of the Salvation Army.

Again St. Helens has gone over the top in a war activity drive.

Spoken English:

Co-ed—I want to get a skirt.

Clerk—How long do you want it?

Co-ed—I don't want to rent it; I want to buy it.

'OLD GLORY' FLIES ON GERMAN SOIL

Here is an American commander in Alsace accompanying a French general in his review of a Yankee contingent billeted in a town where the trench line in the Vosges has invaded territory under the German flag when the war began.

Fourth Liberty Loan bonds will help remove the Boche from Alsace and Lorraine as well as from ravished Belgium.
